

Oregon Reference Summit Presents

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Now seeking virtual programs for summer and fall

Any topic related to reference

Any library type,
at any level

20–30 minutes or 60 minutes

Flexible dates

Non-traditional librarians, library support staff, and first-time presenters especially encouraged to submit

Submit a proposal

<https://forms.gle/h2MyrpTFwPSuiK7f9>

Questions? Contact Gesse Stark-Smith (gesse.starksmith@slo.oregon.gov), OrRS Chair

POSSIBLE TOPICS

Mental and emotional health in library services

Ongoing training practices

The intersection of reference services and social justice

Anti-racist reference practices

Best practices for impactful communication in reference services

Finding and using culturally appropriate resources

AI in reference work

Accessible reference
services

Multilingual reference
services

Engaging underrepresented
staff in reference services

Supporting K–12 students

Specialized research topics (e.g., medicine, law, science)

Reference services for patrons experiencing houselessness and/or other trauma

Success stories

Not-so-successful stories

What's missing? Share your idea with us!

<https://sites.google.com/olaweb.org/oregon-reference-summit/home>