

Oregon Reference Summit Presents CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Now seeking virtual programs
for summer and fall

Any topic related to reference

Any library type,
at any level

20–30 minutes
or 60 minutes

Flexible dates

Non-traditional librarians, library support staff, and first-time presenters especially encouraged to submit

Submit a proposal →

<https://forms.gle/h2MyrpTFwPSuiK7f9>

Questions? Contact Gesse Stark-Smith, OrRS Chair
gesse.starksmith@slo.oregon.gov

POSSIBLE TOPICS

Mental and emotional health in library services

Intersection of reference services and social justice

Best practices for impactful communication in reference services

AI in reference work

Multilingual reference services

Supporting K–12 students

Reference services for patrons experiencing houselessness and/or other trauma

Ongoing training practices

Anti-racist reference practices

Finding and using culturally appropriate resources

Accessible reference
services

Engaging underrepresented
staff in reference services

Specialized research topics (e.g., medicine, law, science)

Success stories

Not-so-successful stories

What's missing? Share your idea with us!

<https://sites.google.com/olaweb.org/oregon-reference-summit/home>