DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Dr. Salam Noor serves as the Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction for the state of Oregon, working to better align services, supports, and funding for all of Oregon's students. Salam comes to the Oregon Department of Education after years of experience in the education system. His key priorities include educational equity and closing opportunity and systems gaps; a strong focus on literacy; supporting educators in providing high-quality instruction in every classroom in the state; and ensuring Oregon graduates leave our schools prepared for their next steps.
