

Tax preparation assistance.

Free tax preparation services are available for low- to moderate-income taxpayers through a number of trusted programs. Not all locations offer free e-filing, and most services are only available during the tax filing season. Use the resources below or call 2-1-1 to find a trusted free tax preparation program near you.

- AARP Tax-Aide

The Oregon Taxpayer Advocate Office has compiled an interactive map of free tax preparation sites for 2024. Appointments at these sites often fill up quickly, and sites may open, close, or change their hours over time, so some information in this map may be incomplete or out of date. You should check with individual programs to confirm service details. If you cannot access the map below, click here.
