

Center for Family Development

LOW COST COUNSELING

Center for Family Development's Teaching Clinic offers mental health counseling for adults, children, adolescents and families for whom cost is a barrier.

The Teaching Clinic is staffed by intern therapists that are supervised by licensed therapists.

WHERE:

Services are available in person at one of our offices or through Telehealth (online).

COST:

Fees are on a sliding scale that is based upon income, householdsize, and ability to pay.

Call (541) 342-8437 for a screening to get set up for services!

