

From Classroom to Citizen: Conference on Oregon Government

State Capitol Building
December 5, 2008

Get the inside scoop from those who work there at a professional development program offered by

From Classroom to Citizen: Conference on Oregon Government

This don't-miss conference offers educators an insider's view of the halls of Oregon government. From those who make laws to those who interpret them, this conference features officials from every branch. It is a day filled with everything we ever wanted to know about Oregon government from the mouths of the folks we put there.

Participants will return to schools knowing more about:

- the Oregon Constitution and initiative system
- key landmark cases from Oregon courts
- Oregon's new high school graduation requirements
- how the legislature really works

And, receive an armload of lessons, materials, and ideas that you can put right to work in your classroom!

Friday, December 5, 2008

State Capitol Building
900 Court Street NE
Salem, Oregon

Conference fee of $50 ($10 for currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students of education) includes:

- choice of 3 concurrent sessions
- materials
- lunch
- incomparable opportunity to meet policy makers in the seat of government

Travel stipend of $50 for participants traveling at least 150 miles round trip (for those traveling multiple hours one-way, please contact CLP).

Credit options:

- PDUs available
- .5 credit Lewis & Clark College ($40, payable to college; must attend full day)

From Classroom to Citizen: Conference on Oregon Government

Friday, December 5, 2008

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 Welcome from the Senate Floor
- 10:50 Concurrent Session I
- 12:05 Lunch
- 12:45 Concurrent Session II
- 2:20 Concurrent Session III
- 3:55 The Last Word from Senate Floor
- 4:30 Adjourn

Possible Concurrent Sessions

1. Teaching the Constitution So They Get it
2. View From the Rookies: First Year Legislators Tell All
3. American Indians: Sovereign Nations within Oregon Borders
4. Strip Clubs Near Schools: Free Speech in Oregon
5. Those Pesky Oregon Initiatives
6. What To Do When a Legislator Comes to Your Classroom
7. Oregon Supreme Court Cases Making a Difference
8. State v. Federal Court: Which One, Why, and How to Explain It to Students
9. Yes, There are Three Branches! Separation of Powers from a Judge's Perspective
10. 2012 and Counting: Oregon's New and Improved Graduation Requirements
11. Senior Projects and Leadership Classes: Project Citizen – A Curriculum that Lives Up to Its Name
12. Does My Vote Really Count?

To Register

Complete form, include payment, and return to Classroom Law Project.

Deadline: November 14, 2008

Fee: $50 per person
$10 for currently enrolled undergraduate or graduate students of education

Late Fee: $75 for registrations received after November 14

Travel Stipend: $50 for participants traveling at least 150 miles round trip
(for those traveling multiple hours one-way, please contact CLP).

Mr/Ms (please circle one) Name _____

School _____ School District _____

School address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Grade level _____ Course title _____

Phone _____ Fax _____

Email _____

To assist with planning, please indicate the numbers of the three sessions you would most like to attend: _____

☐ Credit Card ☐ Check (payable to Classroom Law Project)

Card # _____ Exp. Date _____

Billing Address _____

Signature _____

To return registration and for more information, contact:

Classroom Law Project, 620 SW Main, Suite 102, Portland, Oregon 97205
ph: 503-224-4425 | fax: 503-224-1721 | office@classroomlaw.org

CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT is a non-profit organization of individuals, educators, lawyers, and civic leaders building strong communities by teaching students to be active citizens.

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS!