

The World Affairs Council of Oregon presents:

Teach Africa

"Africa Rising!"

A FREE Conference for K-12 Educators

Including Full Time College Students & Youth Leaders

Saturday, May 18, 2013 8:30 - 3:30, PSU Smith Memorial Student Union, 1825 SW Broadway

Immerse yourself in the cultures of:

North, South, East, West & Central Africa:

- Hear about "Africa Rising" from Inspirational Speaker, Lou Radja
- Expand your knowledge with experts on:
 - Trade, Economics and Geography
 - History, Health and the Environment
 - Education and the growing Film Industry
- Experience:
 - Connecting Rap & African Music with the Obo Addy Legacy Project
 - The Energetic Dance of Southern Africa
 - Folktales of Mali and Art of Zimbabwe
 - Cooking the African Way
 - And Stories of Women and the Family
- Bring it home with:
 - School Africa Action Project ideas and
 - A Presentation on local immigration and refugee issues

Feast on food, fun and information:

- A Delicious, Nutritious African lunch ($10) & Lively Entertainment
- Mid-day African Action Fair and Marketplace

Receive Credit & Curricular Materials:

- Curricular materials both free and for discounted purchase
- Professional Development Credit for each attendee

Many thanks to our supporters:

- The Collins Foundation & Juan Young Trust
- PSU's Office of International Affairs & PSU's Black Studies Program

Go to <http://worldoregon.org/education/teach-the-world/teach-africa> to register TODAY!

This Conference is also open to the general public for a fee of $50. Deadline May 12th

Questions? Call or email Karen Ettinger, K-12 Director at 503-306-5270 or karen@worldoregon.org