

FREE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TRAINING

SAVE THE DATE NOW!

The OREGON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE in collaboration with the SALEM POLICE DEPARTMENT and the MARION COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE will be presenting a 2 ½ day FREE Domestic Violence Conference at the Salem Conference Center JULY 20-22, 2010!

The focus of the conference is “Under-Investigated areas of Domestic Violence: Strangulation, Stalking and Technology, Officer-involved incidents of Domestic Violence, and the Link between Animal Abuse and Domestic Violence.”

There will be four fantastic national speakers to address these topics:

- Jennifer Markowitz, Medical Director of AEquitas
- Rebecca Dreke, National Stalking Resource Center
- Dottie Davis, Deputy Chief of Training at the Regional Public Safety Academy, Fort Wayne, Indiana
- Sherry Ramsey, Esq., Humane Society of the United States

This training is offered for Prosecutors, Law Enforcement personnel, and Domestic Violence advocates. There are approximately 100 spots available.

The Department of Justice is able to offer this training FREE to all attendees. In addition, the DOJ will provide reimbursement to attendees who live more than 50 miles from the conference site for lodging (at the federal/state per diem rate), mileage, and meals/expenses/incidentals (at the federal/state per diem rate).

Application requirements will be sent out on JUNE 4, 2010.

Mark your calendars now!