

INTIMATE PARTNER STALKING- Homicide & Serious Assault Prevention Symposium

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This 1 ½ day symposium has been designed to provide public safety personnel with the tools necessary to improve initial response, investigation, and prosecution of intimate partner stalking cases.

Designed specifically for police officers, patrol supervisors, detectives, prosecutors, community corrections, and victim advocates, this symposium will include regional case studies of actual cases. A consistent, unified and multi-disciplinary approach can significantly mitigate the risks associated with these crimes.

THE STALKING RESOURCE CENTER

Of Washington, DC is a project of the National Center for Victims of Crime

More than 70% of domestic homicide victims were stalked prior to their murders.

[Judith McFarlane et al., "Stalking and Intimate Partner Femicide," Homicide Studies 3, no. 4 (1999).]

The Symposium will run from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM on June 7th and from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM on June 8th. Coffee/tea and snacks are included both days, lunch on Tuesday only. Continuing Education credits are available.
