OREGON
PUBLIC HEALTH
WEEK 2011

Engaging Men to Prevent Sexual and Domestic Violence

Sexual and domestic violence are major public health concerns that we all need to confront. This panel of community members and leaders, moderated by Cliff Leek of the Oregon Sexual Assault Task Force, will address some of the ways that we can engage men in the prevention of violence and the importance of doing so.

Panelists:

Mario Olivares – Youth advocate, prevention specialist and legal advocate with Clackamas Women's Services

Tim Logan – Agency Administrator and Lead Facilitator of SoValTi Family Services, a culturally specific Batterer Intervention agency

Jack Straton – Associate Professor of Physics and University Studies at Portland State University and member of the National Organization of Men Against Sexism

Ron Clark – Pastor of Agape Church of Christ and author of Am I Sleeping with the Enemy?: Males and Females in the Image of God

Tuesday, April 5
