

STRANGULATION ASSESSMENT AND DOCUMENTATION: A MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACH

TWO OFFERINGS

MONDAY March 5, 2012 1:00pm-5:00pm
Providence St Vincent Medical Center
In Souther Auditorium

OR

TUESDAY March 6, 2012 8:00am-12:00pm
Providence Portland Medical Center
In Social Room

AUDIENCE: SANE RNs, Emergency Department
RNs, EMS, Law Enforcement or Prosecutors

Nursing Continuing Education Contact Hours 3.5 hr CEP 15067

Presented by Kris Karcher, RN, SANE, FNE
Chief Deputy Medical Examiner
Coos County Medical Examiner's Office
Coquille, Oregon

Attached to the flier email is the course outline and syllabus.

A sign in sheet will be available to provide your email address so the organizers of the offering may forward the presentation via email after the class is complete.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

- Recognize the significance of the potential for life threatening injury in cases of strangulation.
- Assess for signs and symptoms of strangulation injuries.
- Knowledge of appropriate documentation of strangulation injuries.
- Facilitate/expedite treatment for patient/victim of strangulation.
- Have an understanding of Oregon HB 2940 and how it relates to their discipline.

PROVIDENCE ST. VINCENT MEDICAL CENTER
PROVIDENCE PORTLAND MEDICAL CENTER

Class Size Limited Please RSVP to teri.polak@providence.org by March 1, 2012