

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CONFERENCE

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

“Boot Camp III”

The OREGON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE is offering a fantastic DV conference for PROSECUTORS. This conference will focus on developing and honing trial advocacy skills through lecture, group discussion, and intense participation by attendees. The training will also focus on best practices in other areas of DV prosecution, such as collaboration with victims’ rights attorneys.

Who Should Attend: Oregon Prosecutors who handle DV cases. The training is appropriate for ALL levels of prosecution experience

When: October 10-12, 2012

Where: The Elizabeth Street Inn, Newport, Oregon

Faculty/Presenters: Veteran DV prosecutors and victim resource providers from around Oregon

COST: REGISTRATION IS FREE. Attendees will be responsible for covering expenses (excluding lodging which will be paid by DOJ) up-front.

(Attendees will be provided continental breakfast. ALL attendees will be reimbursed for lunch (at the federal/state per diem rate). Attendees living more than 50 miles from the conference site will be reimbursed for dinner (at the federal/state per diem rate). ALL attendees will be reimbursed for mileage with proof of mileage driven (at the federal/state rate of .50/mile)).

There are 25 seats available at this conference. In an effort to facilitate attendance by as many counties as possible, the application process will only accept the first TWO applications from any one county. If there are additional seats available after the initial application process has been completed, additional attendees from already attending counties may be admitted. A waiting list will be maintained for those counties wishing to send more than two attendees.

CLE credit will be requested from the Oregon State Bar for this conference.

To Register: Fill out the attached application and either email it to erin.greenawald@doj.state.or.us OR fax it, Attention: Erin Greenawald to: 503-373-1936.
