

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TRAINING

ODAA 2016 SUMMER CONFERENCE

Wednesday, August 17, 2016 8:45 am – 4:00 pm

The Riverhouse Hotel and Convention Center—Bend, Oregon

In collaboration with the Oregon Peace Officers Association the Oregon DOJ is thrilled to offer this training for prosecutors, law enforcement officers, domestic violence advocates (community and system-based), and other criminal justice professionals (as space allows).

UNDERSTANDING THE NEUROBIOLOGY OF TRAUMA:
IMPROVING YOUR CASE AND

A VICTIM'S EXPERIENCE WITH THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

- We are thrilled to announce this fascinating and important one-day training FEATURING nationally acclaimed speaker, Dr. Christopher Wilson.
- Dr. Wilson will provide attendees with a captivating and easy-to-understand presentation on the science of trauma.
- The training will significantly improve our consideration of the (often misunderstood) reactions and behaviors of sexual and domestic violence victims.
- Attendees will also learn about the ground-breaking trauma informed interviewing technique, FETI© (Forensic Experiential Trauma Interview).

Who Should Attend: Prosecutors, Law Enforcement, Advocates, and other criminal justice professionals who routinely work with victims of domestic and sexual violence.

Cost: Registration for this conference is FREE. In addition, attendees will receive materials and refreshments AT NO EXPENSE.

- Prosecutors: There are FORTY lodging scholarships (see registration materials for details). The training can accommodate attendance of more than 40 prosecutors, but we can only pay lodging expenses for 40.
- Law Enforcement: Registration will be handled by OPOA.
- Advocates/Other: See registration materials for details.
