

SAVE THE DATE!

BOOT CAMP VII IS COMING!

NOVEMBER 2nd - 4th, 2016

Domestic Violence “Boot Camp” is a 2.5 day trial advocacy course for prosecutors who handle DV cases. This course is limited to 30 prosecutors (including tribal prosecutors).

Where: Criminal Justice Division of the Oregon Department of Justice; Salem, Oregon

When: November 2-4th, 2016

What: Topics this year will include:

- * Playing Offense: Pre-Trial Motions
- * Facebook, ROs, Jail Calls and More: Build a Better Case
- * Overcoming Crawford challenges
- * Engaging with child witnesses and victims
- * Forfeiture by Wrongdoing: Filing and Winning your FBW Motions
- * Community Corrections: Pre-Sentence to Post-Conviction
- * “Kid” and DV Cases: What we can learn from each other
- * Expert Witnesses: Who they are and how and when to use them
- * Legal Updates: Now what?!

MORE
INFORMATION
TO FOLLOW IN SEPTEMBER!!