

Wallowa County

Deputy District Attorney

Wallowa County is currently recruiting for a Deputy District Attorney. Located in Northeast Oregon, Wallowa County has a rich and diverse culture in farming, ranching, timber, the arts, and tourism. Wallowa County is the home of the Eagle Cap Wilderness, Wallowa-Whitman National Forest, Hells Canyon Recreation Area, and the Wallowa Lake Moraine – one of Oregon's Seven Wonders. Enjoy hiking, hunting, fishing, rafting, and camping in this pristine landscape.

If you hold a Doctor of Jurisprudence and are a current member of the Oregon State Bar, and want to expand on your law school education and hone your trial skills by prosecuting your own case load, you should come work in Wallowa County. If you are passionate about advocating for victims and holding offenders accountable for their crimes, you should come work in Wallowa County. If you enjoy small town living, friendly people, and abundance of outdoor activities, you should come work in Wallowa County. Please visit www.co.wallowa.or.us to find the job announcement and obtain an application.

