The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)

- Federal program intended to provide lower-income households with food for household consumption and to use in congregate meal settings at no cost
- In Oregon, individuals and households at or below 300% FPL access TEFAP at participating partner agencies (food banks/pantries, free food sites, congregate meal settings)
- There is no application for TEFAP - individuals can find free food near them using Oregon Food Bank's Food Finder
