

Intermountain GIS 2021 Conference Transformations

May 17-20, 2021
Virtual Conference
(Platform provided by Whova)

Call for Story Maps

We would like to invite both students and professionals to submit posters, maps, and story maps for display at the 2021 Intermountain GIS Conference "Transformations". Posters, maps, and story maps are a great way to portray your work and share results virtually with other professionals in the field. If you have created a poster, map, and/or story map you would like to share with other GIS professionals, please submit your application for display at our 2021 conference. Submission deadline is May 10, 2021. Posters, maps, and story maps will be displayed throughout the conference on our virtual platform provided by Whova.

There will be 3 prizes awarded in two different categories:

BEST STUDENT

- 1st Place Story Map/Poster $100
- 2nd Place Story Map/Poster $50
- 3rd Place Story Map/Poster $50

BEST PROFESSIONAL

- 1st Place Story Map/Poster $100
- 2nd Place Story Map/Poster $50
- 3rd Place Story Map/Poster $50

Click Here For Application

Please note, this presentation is intended as a way for students and professionals to share their work. It is not to be used as a means of advertisement or product promotion.

For further questions please contact Presentations@intermountaingis.org