OREGON
PUBLIC HEALTH WEEK 2011

The Way I See It: A Youth Perspective on Health Film and Photo Contest Awards Ceremony

When: Wednesday, April 6 6-8 p.m. (Doors open at 5:30 p.m.)

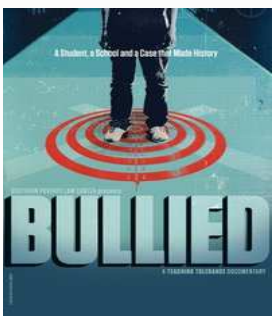

Where: Portland State University, Smith Memorial Union Room 338
1825 S.W. Broadway, Portland OR 97201. Visit the Oregon Public Health Week website for a map of Smith Memorial Union.

What: The Northwest Health Foundation and the Oregon Health Authority Public Health Division will present a screening of the film, "Bullied," a documentary chronicling one student's experience at the hands of anti-gay bullies. "Bullied" offers a message of hope to those who are facing, and standing up against bullying.

After the film, a panel of young people will further the discussion, highlighting what is being done in Oregon to prevent bullying.

Winners of the youth photo contest, "The Way I See It: A Youth Perspective on Health," will be announced and celebrated prior to the screening of the film.

Who: The film and award ceremony are FREE and open to the public. Youth are encouraged to attend.
