

OREGON PUBLIC HEALTH WEEK

SAVE THE DATE: APRIL 1-7, 2013

Public Health is Return on Investment (ROI):

Save Lives, Save Money

Poor health comes at a significant cost to all Oregonians, but research shows investing in public health and prevention makes a big difference. Please join Oregon's public health partners for National Public Health Week as they promote opportunities for continuing health and wellness for all Oregonians.

Public Health Week schedule at a glance

Save the dates and get involved

April 1: Capitol Visit Day

9:00am -12 noon Oregon public health displays: Oregon State Capitol Galleria, Salem

April 2: Walk Around the Capitol

12 noon – 12:45pm I love ME (Moving & Eating) Marion County Walk highlighting diabetes & obesity prevention: Walk begins on the Oregon State Capitol Steps, Salem

April 3: Escape Fire: The Fight to Rescue American Healthcare

CNN's Visionary Documentary on Health Care Reform

7:00 - 8:45 pm Film screening

8:45 - 9:15 pm Audience discussion

OHSU Auditorium, Portland

April 4: An Evening with Michael Moss, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and author of

Salt, Sugar, Fat: How the Food Giants Hooked Us

6:00 - 7:30 p.m. Michael Moss presents

7:30 - 8:30 p.m. Reception and book signing

OHSU Auditorium, Portland

April 5: Oregon Master of Public Health Program Poster Symposium

11:00am-1:00pm, Rooms 1B & 1D: Portland State Office Building, Portland

If you require ADA accommodations to attend any of the Oregon Public Health Week events, please call 503-494-4858 by March 22, 2013

For details about Public Health Week events around Oregon, or to submit a Public Health Week event to the events calendar please visit www.oregonpublichealth.org/events

For more information about National Public Health Week, visit www.nphw.org.

