

Join Pacific Northwest SOPHE for a continuing education program on
Reaching the Hard-to-Reach:
Cultural Competency and Health
Education for Vulnerable Populations

Moderated by Elizabeth ‘Tizzy’ Bennett, Director of Community Benefit and Guest Services at Seattle Children’s Hospital. Panelists Brian Aylward from Iora Health, Nadia Novotny from Neighborcare, and Shambricia Spencer from Planned Parenthood will highlight their work with older adult, homeless and LGBTQ populations.

Attendees will gain:

- Skills for effectively outreaching to and engaging vulnerable populations in healthcare.
- A better understanding of the challenges to accessing healthcare services.
- Strategies to better serve vulnerable populations.
- Opportunities to network with colleagues from 9 to 9:30 and 11:30 to noon.

Friday, May 6th ▪ 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Seattle Children’s Roosevelt Commons Admin. Bldg. – Rm 4040 A/B

4300 Roosevelt Way 98105 – Near 45th NE and I-5

Street parking ▪ On bus lines

Registration opening soon ▪ Payment can be made via PayPal ▪ Limited to 40 participants

Members – $25 ▪ Organizational Members – $100 (up to 5 registrants per $100)

Students – $15 ▪ Non-members – $35

Register at www.pnwsophe.org ▪ Fee includes 2 M/CHES credits

Questions/Info on alternative payment options – contact Maryam Jafari at jafarimaryam528@gmail.com or 206-724-3306