

OREGON LIBRARIES TRANSFORM™

Katie Anderson

Youth Services Consultant, Oregon State Library

503-378-2528, katie.Anderson@state.or.us

BECAUSE

“Play is not just some touchy-feely activity. There is hard evidence that children learn more things through play than they would in some academic setting.”

Dr. Alison Gopnik, co-author of The Scientist in the Crib: What Early Learning Tells Us About the Mind

LIBRARIES TRANSFORM™

FROM ACADEMIC SETTINGS
WHERE BOOKS ARE READ

TO PLACES WHERE STORIES ARE EXPLORED THROUGH PLAY

Salem Public Library's Discovery Room

Stay and Play at the Library

Banks Public Library

Pendleton Public Library

Stay and Play at the Library

East Bend
Library's
Building Toys

Mount Angel
Public Library's
STEM Center

Stay and Play at the Library

Waldport Public Library

Astoria Public Library

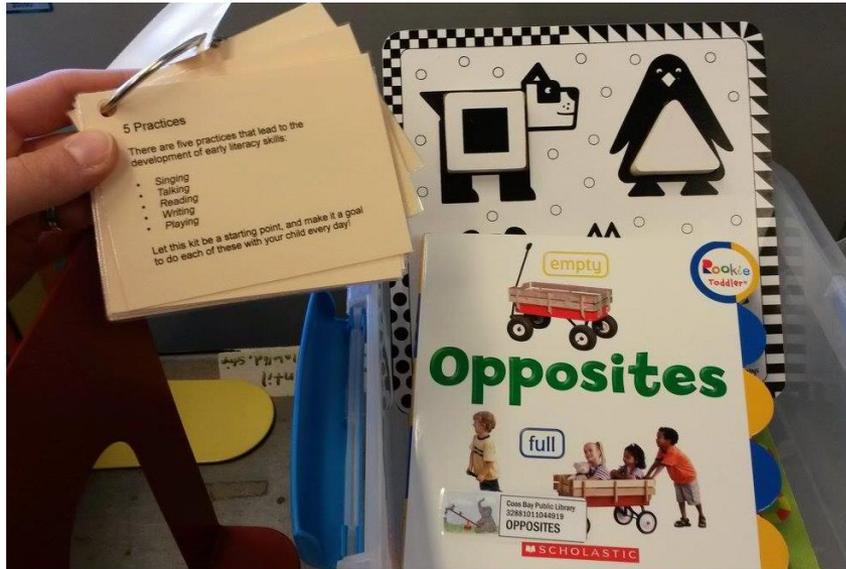

Retelling Stories through Play

Silver Falls
Library District's Puppet Stage

Stayton Public Library's
Stuffed Animals

Check It Out and Play at Home

Mount Angel
Public Library

North Bend
Public Library

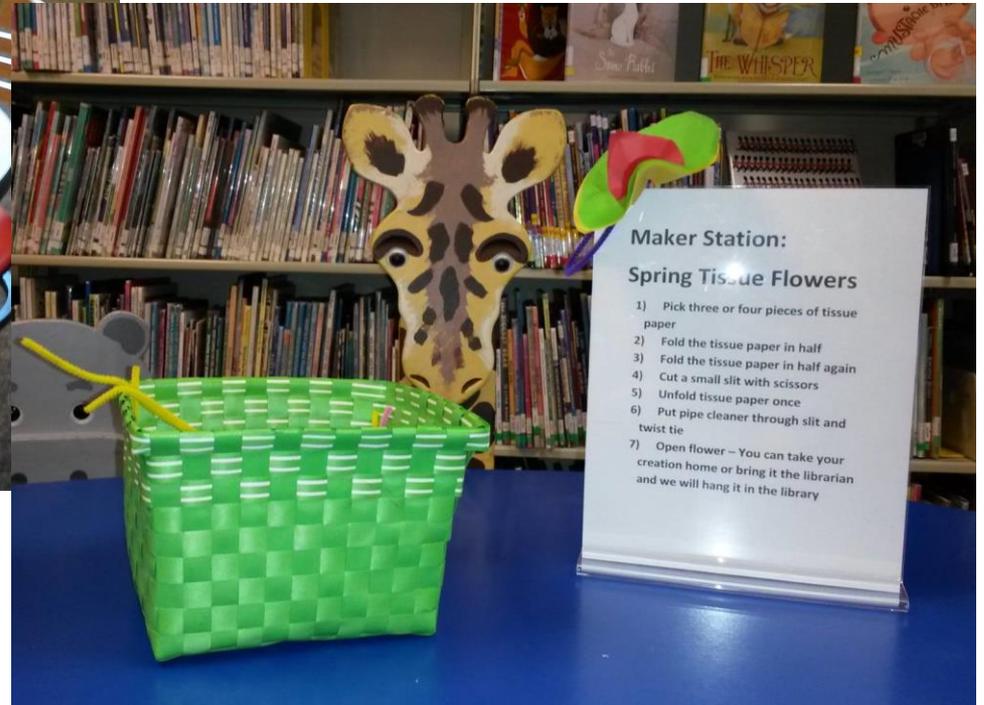

Rotating Play Stations

Mount Angel Public Library's Maker Station

La Pine Library's Play Station

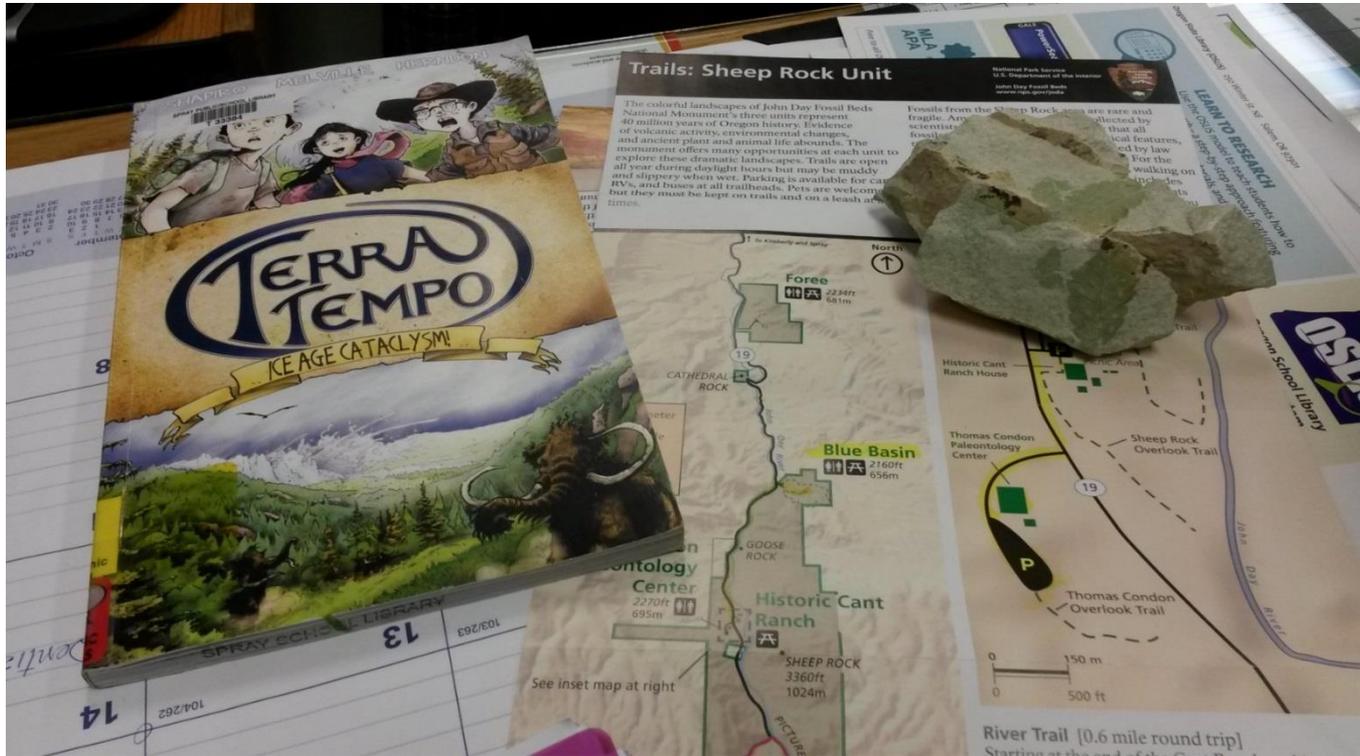

Join the Fun: Guided Play Programs

Crook County Library's
Kindermusik

Seaside Public Library's
Preschool Storytime

Join the Fun: Guided Play Programs

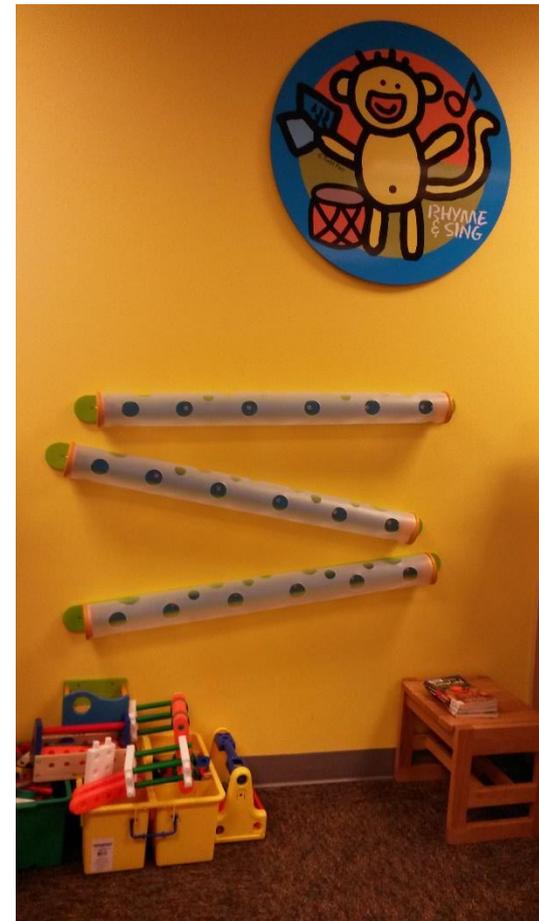

Spray Public/School Library's
John Day Fossil Beds Field Trip and Storytelling

Inquisitive Play Activity Centers

La Pine Library's
Early Learning Space

Inquisitive Play Activity Centers

La Grande Library's
Barn and Grasshopper Car

Coming soon to
Josephine County Library
The Magic Cabin

Inquisitive Play Activity Centers

Newberg
Public Library's
Learning Wall

Cottage Grove
Public Library's
Train Table

Playful Reading Spots

Pendleton
Public Library

Coming soon to

Josephine
County Library

Powers
Public Library

Call your library to plan a visit today!

Oregon Library Directory
<http://libdir.osl.state.or.us/>