

THE OREGON ENCYCLOPEDIA

Open your mind to Oregon!

On June 6 Portland State University and the Oregon Historical Society invite the public to “open their minds to Oregon!” Come and contribute your knowledge of local history and culture to The Oregon Encyclopedia of History & Culture, a dynamic on-line resource that engages Oregonians in learning about all things Oregon. Learn about the web site, meet the project team, and bring your ideas. Find out how you can be a part of this exciting project.

Join Editor-in-Chief of the Encyclopedia Bill Lang and Encyclopedia Author and former news analyst at KGW-TV, Floyd McKay, to discover The Oregon Encyclopedia.

Saturday, June 6 • 1:00 – 3:00 pm
The Stayton Public library
515 N 1st Avenue, Stayton

For more information please visit the events page at:
www.oregonencyclopedia.org

This event is co-sponsored by the Stayton Public Library. The project is also supported by the Oregon Cultural Trust, the Oregon Council of Teachers of English, the Oregon University System, Willamette University, the Oregon Heritage Commission, and private donors have provided additional support. The Oregon Encyclopedia is an official Sesquicentennial Partner Project of Oregon 150.

