

Library Supervisor

Starting at $5,828/mo.

Why join the North Plains Library Team?

“Through equitable access to our collection and services, we empower gathering, connection, lifelong learning, and creativity.”

North Plains is a small, semi-rural city 17 miles west of Downtown Portland along the 26 corridor less than an hour from the Oregon Coast. The library is a member of Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS). With new neighborhoods and businesses coming in, the City is investing in improved service delivery and facility upgrades.

We are seeking a dynamic, dedicated Library Supervisor to oversee daily operations, coordinate volunteers, and contribute to the library’s welcoming environment.

This is a full-time (40 hrs/wk) position with a comprehensive benefit package. The City of North Plains is an equal opportunity employer. Please view full job announcement and job description for more details.
