WHO WAS PURA BELPRÉ?

Pura Belpré was the first Puerto Rican
librarian in New York City and a trailblazing author who brought Puerto Rican folktales
to life and championed
bilingual literacy.

HV HAPPY VALLEY
LIBRARY

Join us for a special Mock Pura Belpré event
as we explore and honor outstanding works of children's literature
that celebrate the Latine cultural experience.
Participants will read,
discuss, and vote on their favorite titles — just like the real
award committee!
