

SLIVER OF A FULL MOON

May 3, 2017 doors open at 5:30 pm

Play starts at 6:00 pm

Wildhorse Resort & Casino Rivers

Event Center

Sliver of a Full Moon is a powerful reenactment of the historic congressional reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) in 2013: a movement that restored the authority of tribal governments to prosecute non-Native abusers who assault and abuse Native women on tribal lands.

Mary Kathryn Nagle (Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma), Playwright