

How CAC Professionals can Support Compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act

VIRTUAL

Friday, February 2, 2024 • 9:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

SESSION OVERVIEW

This training will allow participants to recognize the impact of historical and intergenerational trauma when providing victim services with American Indians, understanding why professional who work with Children's Advocacy Centers need to have a working understanding of the Indian Child Welfare Act and identify strategies to support the implementation of ICWA within the context of the Child Advocacy Center work.

PRESENTER BIO

Kara Pasqua joined NCARC and NNCTC in 2023 following more than 25 years serving children and families in the Indian Child Welfare and Child Support programs of the Cherokee Nation. As a supervisor in her Nation's programs, she developed, implemented, and managed programming while working collaboratively with state, federal, and tribal agencies.

Register here by January 31: https://bit.ly/ocas_2224