RULE SUMMARY

The proposed amendment reorganizes and adds general definitions; makes various clarifying language and grammar housekeeping changes; modifies the applied psychology core program education requirements to be consistent with the clinical psychology core program education requirements, including a requirement for a minimum quantity of graded coursework, and changes to the substantive content area descriptions; makes some clarifying changes to the supervised work experience requirements; creates a retention period of three years for a residency supervisor's records and notes; adds a requirement that the residency supervisor notify the board within fourteen days of any significant interruption or expected termination of a resident supervision contract; modifies and adds definitions to the process for application review; updates the examination procedures; adds a clear definition of inactive status; specifies that a license will revert to inactive status if a licensee fails to pay the prorated reactivation fee in 30 days.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.

Fiscal and Economic Impact:

Changes have negligible fiscal impact.

Statement of Cost of Compliance:

1. Impact on state agencies, units of local government and the public (ORS 183.335(2)(b)(E)):

Changes have minimal or no fiscal impact. Additional workload resulting from implementation will be absorbed by current staff.

2. Cost of compliance effect on small business (ORS 183.336):

a. Estimate the number of small business and types of businesses and industries with small businesses subject to the rule:

None.

b. Projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative activities required for compliance, including costs of professional services:

None.

c. Equipment, supplies, labor and increased administration required for compliance:

None.

How were small businesses involved in the development of this rule?

Small businesses were not directly involved; however members of the Board who developed these amendments represent small businesses.

Administrative Rule Advisory Committee consulted?: No

If not, why?:

These amendments are mainly corrective in purpose and/or uncomplicated in nature, and have negligible projected fiscal impact on stakeholders. The Board determined the work of the committees to be sufficient.
