

JOB OPPORTUNITY

TOURISM & CULTURAL AFFAIRS TOURISM DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST

The Clackamas County's Tourism and Cultural Affairs (CCTCA) Department is seeking a qualified, self-motivated and detail-oriented individual to join our team as Tourism Development Specialist and assist in the development of new tourism markets including international, assets, attractions, and products. This position will require collaboration with tourism and travel trade partners, communities and other governmental agencies, as well as an ability to work as part of a team and be self-directed. This position supports a diverse and wide range of tourism initiatives and priorities that require working on multiple projects at once with multiyear timelines.

CCTCA is the destination marketing organization for Clackamas County branded as Oregon's Mt. Hood Territory. It is funded by the transient lodging tax charged on all overnight stays in commercial lodging facilities in the County. The department is responsible for strategies that both develop tourism attractions, facilities and products, and markets the destination through advertising, promotions, public relations and sales materials. By increasing the number of new and repeat visitors to the County, the department contributes to economic development and local vitality.
