What OCF Does

- Promotes philanthropy
- Builds permanent charitable resources
- Acts as intermediary organization
- Promotes community development and local leadership
- Supports nonprofit capacity building and sustainability

Statewide Funding Opportunities

Tips for Success with Grant Applications

- Decide if your need is aligned with the grant program priorities
- Know who you are and what you are planning to do
- Reach out to the program officer with questions
- Demonstrate that people with lived experience are meaningfully leading and/or influencing the work

Community Grants Program

- Two Grant Cycles in 2023:
 - Spring Cycle: general operating
 - Fall Cycle: organizational enhancement
- Community review process, based in the OCF regions shared earlier
- Program prioritizes funding for nonprofits meeting most pressing need of communities in Oregon.
- Spring Applicant Webinar: February 15, 10am
- RSVP - Community Grants webpage

Rural-Based Organization?

An organization is rural-based if:

An organization that focuses on a community with a population of 35,000 or fewer that is NOT directly adjacent to (or part of a) metropolitan area of 50,000 or more.

SPRING 2023

Funding Type

General Operating
(unrestricted)

Organizations

- Culturally specific (any operating budget)
- Rural/emerging organizations (operating budget of $250,000 or less)

Awards

- Up to $40,000
$5,000-$30,000

Economic Vitality Matters

- OCF believes a strong economy with abundant jobs and wealth creation for more Oregonians is vital.
- Thriving Entrepreneurs grant program.
Next application cycle: TBD, ~June 2023
- Community Rebuilding Fund for 2020 wildfires support.

Organizational Profile Tool

- Provides nonprofits a way to update OCF and our donors on projects they are working on, current funding needs, and who they serve.
- Details organizations can provide:
 - Mission Statement
 - Population(s) Served
 - Current Projects and Needs
- oregoncf.org/grants-resources/organization-profile-tool/
