Willamina Hosts Community Future Visioning Workshop

Last Tuesday, Oct. 1, the City of Willamina held a Vision workshop to hear what community members see for the future of downtown Willamina. Prior to the workshop, attendees were treated to an Oktoberfest dinner and an apple pressing demonstration, which meant free fresh apple cider.

way for the crowd to envision a view of the Willamina downtown of the future.

Each person picked items from the stage and table, laden with things such as Lego bricks, colorful rocks, toy coins, plastic fruit, straws, and a range of other random items, to build a display of what made them happy.

The workshop, led by Cayla Catino and Erubiel Valladares of Rural Development Initiatives (RDI), introduced an interactive

Individuals were then put into teams to share their personal views and work together to create a team display that would
