

Some Coming Lewis & Clark Events

Thursday, February 17 - “Tools of Survival-Weapons of the Corp of Discovery” by Mike Carrick. Mike is Vice-President of the Oregon Chapter of the Lewis & Clark Heritage Trail Foundation and edits a question & answer column in the chapter newsletter. He is a former president of the Marion County Historical Society. Carrick is an avid collector of period firearms and weapons and the Question & Answer Editor of Gun Report magazine. This is a 7:30 pm event on the 3rd floor of the mill building at Mission Mill Museum in Salem, but get there early.

For tickets to any of the Lewis and Clark events at the Mission Mill Museum, go online at www.missionmill.org, call 503.585.7012, or visit the mill at 1313 Mill Street in Salem.

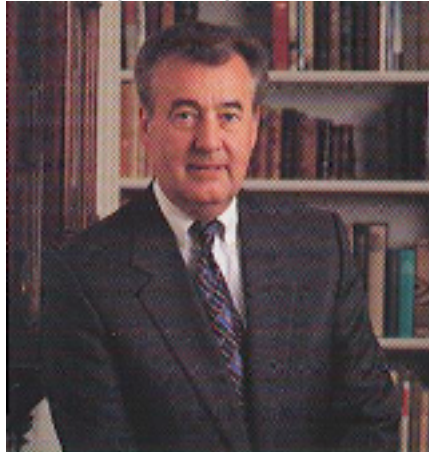

Mike Carrick

Sunday, March 13 - “Chinookan Nations Encounter the Corps of Discovery” will be presented by Pat Courtney Gold at 2:00 pm at the Lakeside Center of the Mennonite Village in Albany. Pat is a Chinookan and basketry expert. This is a free public event sponsored by the Linn County Historical Society and supported by the Oregon Council for the Humanities. Pat is enrolled in the Wasco Nation of the Warm Springs Confederated Tribes of Oregon.

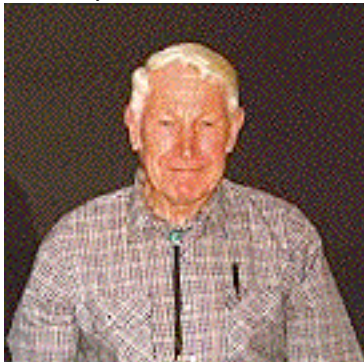

Pat Gold

Thursday, March 17- “Lewis & Clark Expedition: America’s Commitment to the Enlightenment” by Stephen Dow Beckham. He is the author of many historical books including Lewis & Clark from the Rockies to the Pacific and coauthored The Literature of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. Stephen is a History Professor at Lewis and Clark College. The program begins at 7:30 pm at Mission Mill Museum in Salem.

Steve Beckham

Thursday, April 14 - “Foods of Lewis and Clark” will be presented at 7:00 pm at the First Christian Church in Albany. Dr. Mel Westwood, who founded the Plant Repository at OSU, is publishing a book also titled Foods of Lewis and Clark. He will be assisted in the presentation by Dr. Kim Hummer, the current curator at the Repository. This program is sponsored by the Albany Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Committee, so is free but donations will be accepted.

Mel Westwood

Thursday, April 21- “Sacagawea, Beyond the Shining Mountains with Lewis and Clark” by Joyce Badgley Hunsaker. It begins at 7:30 pm at Mission Mill Museum in Salem. Joyce is the author of They Call Me Sacagawea and Sacagawea Speaks: Beyond the Shining Mountains with Lewis and Clark.

Joyce Hunsaker

For tickets to any Mission Mill Museum Lewis and Clark event go online at www.missionmill.org, call 503.585.7012, or visit the mill at 1313 Mill Street in Salem.