And I Darken* By Kiersten White

A girl child is born to Vlad Dracula, in Transylvania, in 1435--at first rejected by her father and always ignored by her mother, she will grow up to be Lada Dragwlya, a vicious and brutal princess, destined to rule and destroy her enemies.

Away We Go* By Emil Ostrovski

Youths infected with the fatal Peter Pan Virus are sent to Westing Academy where Noah Falls pins his affections on a boy who does not reciprocate, and soon tarnishes his other relationships and increases his feelings of self-loathing.

Been Here All Along* By Sandy Hall

Gideon, who thinks he has his life's plan under control, suddenly gets his world turned upside down when he realizes he has feelings for his best friend, Kyle, who already has a girlfriend.

Drag Teen: A Tale of Angst and Wigs* By Jeffery Self

JT is a gay high school senior determined to get out of Clearwater, Florida, and be the first person in his family to go to college, even though he can not figure out how to pay for it--until his friends convince him to compete in a drag teen competition where the first prize is a college scholarship.

Draw the Line* By Laurent Linn

Adrian Piper lives for his art, especially his "secret superhero creation," Graphite. After a hate crime against another gay student, Adrian's art, and Graphite, are his lifelines to deal with the tragedy.

It Looks Like This* By Rafi Mittlefehldt

Moving to a new city and joining an evangelical church despite his own reluctance, artistic Mike is bullied by a father who wants him to play sports and toughen up, a situation that is complicated by Mike's growing feelings for another newcomer.

The Great American Whatever* By Tim Federle

Teenaged Quinn, an aspiring screenwriter, copes with his sister's death while his best friend forces him back out into the world to face his reality.

Highly Illogical Behavior* By John Corey Whaley

Agoraphobic sixteen-year-old Solomon has not left his house in three years, but Lisa is determined to change that-- and to write a scholarship-winning essay based on the results.

Three Truths and A Lie* By Brent Hartinger

When friends Rob, Liam, Mia, and Galen gather for a weekend of fun deep in the forest, one is hiding a lie and not everyone will live to find out which one it is.

Timekeeper* By Tara Sim

In an alternate Victorian world controlled by clock towers, a damaged clock can fracture time--and a destroyed one can stop it completely. Though Danny is a prodigy who can repair not only clockwork, but the very fabric of time, his fixation with staging a rescue of his father, who has been trapped by time, is quickly becoming a concern to his superiors.

True Letters From A Fictional Life* By Kenneth Logan

To help him deal with his inner struggles, James writes letters to the people of his life and locks them away, but when his words are broadcast all over school he needs to decide if he wants to live a life of fiction.

We Are the Ants* By Shaun David Hutchinson

Abducted by aliens periodically throughout his youth, Henry Denton is informed by his erstwhile captors that they will end the world in 144 days unless he stops them by deciding that humanity is worth saving.
