Books featuring lesbian characters

The Love & Lies of Rukhsana Ali* by Sabina Khan

Rukhsana Ali is looking forward to going to college and getting away from her conservative Muslim --but when her parents catch her kissing her girlfriend Ariana, they whisk Rukhsana off to Bangladesh and a world of tradition and arranged marriages.

We Set the Dark on Fire* by Tehlor Kay Mejia Will Dani cling to the privilege her parents fought to win for her, or to give up everything she's strived for in pursuit of a free Medio—and a chance at a forbidden love?

Girls of Paper and Fire* by Natasha Ngan Each year, eight beautiful girls are chosen as Paper Girls to serve the king. It's the highest honor they could hope for...and the most cruel. But this year, there's a ninth girl. And instead of paper, she's made of fire.

On A Sunbeam* by Tillie Walden Throughout the deepest reaches of space, a crew rebuilds beautiful and broken-down structures, painstakingly putting the past together. As Mia, the newest member, gets to know her team, the story flashes back to her pivotal year in boarding school, where she fell in love with a mysterious new student. When Mia grows close to her new friends, she reveals her true purpose for joining their ship - to track down her long-lost love.

Pulp* by Robin Talley Duel narratives follow an eighteen-year-old closeted lesbian in 1955 keeping a secret romance and wanting to write her own stories and another young woman sixty-two years later studying 1950s lesbian pulp fiction for her senior project

Ship It* by Britta Lundin Told from two viewpoints, Forest, a television actor who needs more fans, and Claire, a teen fan fiction blogger, are teamed to raise his profile despite their disagreement over whether his character is gay.

The Summer of Jordi Perez and the Best Burger in Los Angeles* by Amy Spalding A summer of first love, fashion, friendship, and cheeseburgers.

Far From the Tree* by Robin Benway Feeling incomplete as an adopted child after placing her own baby up for adoption, teen Grace tracks down her biological siblings and finds herself struggling with the dynamics of being a middle child between an embittered older brother and an outspoken younger sister.

Queens of Geek* by Jen Wilde Three friends go to a convention and find love--and themselves.

We Are Okay* by Nina LaCour After leaving her life behind to go to college in New York, Marin must face the truth about the tragedy that happened in the final weeks of summer when her friend Mabel comes to visit.

Honor Girl* by Maggie Thrash All-girl camp. First love. First heartbreak.

The Miseducation of Cameron Post* by Emily M. Danforth In the early 1990s, when gay teenager Cameron Post rebels against her conservative Montana ranch town and her family decides she needs to change her ways, she is sent to a gay conversion therapy center.
