Books featuring transgender, non-binary and genderqueer characters

The Brilliant Death by Amy Rose Capetta A young shapeshifter has to learn to control her powers, while simultaneously using them to disguise herself as a boy and confront the people who murdered her father.

The Prince and the Dressmaker by Jen Wang Prince Sebastian's secret weapon (and best friend) is the brilliant dressmaker Frances—one of only two people who know the truth: sometimes this boy wears dresses. But Frances dreams of greatness, and being someone's secret weapon means being a secret. How long can Frances defer her dreams to protect a friend?

As the Crow Flies by Melanie Gillman A queer, black teenager finds herself stranded in a dangerous and unfamiliar place: an all-white Christian youth backpacking camp.

Dreadnought by April Daniels After inheriting the powers of Dreadnought, Danny Tozer's hidden transgender identity is brought into the open when her body assumes the gender she identifies with, bringing personal complications just as she is forced to face the original Dreadnought's killer.

Mask of Shadows by Linsey Miller The gender fluid thief Sal Leon enters a competition to become a replacement member of the Left Hand—a quartet of the Queen's personal assassins—but must first survive the training and the contests while putting the reason for auditioning into motion—revenge.

Symptoms of Being Human by Jeff Garvin A gender-fluid teenager who struggles with identity creates a blog on the topic that goes viral, and faces ridicule at the hands of fellow students.

The Hammer of Thor by Rick Riordan Magnus and friends help the god of thunder find his missing weapon before all Muspellheim breaks loose.

Lily and Dunkin by Donna Gephart In a poignant tale by an award-winning author, a transgender girl and a boy struggling with bipolar disorder forge a friendship based on their respective experiences as outsiders trying to fit in.

When the Moon Was Ours by Anna-Marie McLemore As their deep friendship turns to love, Latina teenager Miel, who grows roses from her wrist, and Italian-Pakistani Samir, a transgender boy, fear their secrets will be exposed by the beautiful Bonner girls, four sisters rumored to be witches.

Freakboy by Kristin Clark Told from three viewpoints, seventeen-year-old Brendan, a wrestler, struggles to come to terms with his place on the transgender spectrum while Vanessa, the girl he loves, and Angel, a transgender acquaintance, try to help.

Wandering Son by Takako Shimura Shuichi, a girl seen as a boy, and Yoshino, a boy seen as a girl, become friends in junior high school, where they tackle problems such as gender identity, love, social acceptance, and puberty.

Beyond Magenta: Transgender Teens Speak Out by Susan Kuklin Draws on six first-person interviews to share compassionate insights into the teen transgender experience.
