

Logo concept by Tucker Wooldridge, age 12

Creating Worlds, Constructing Meaning

4th International Storyline Conference

Please join us for the

4th International Storyline Conference Creating Worlds, Constructing Meaning

Portland State University, Portland, Oregon
August 7-9, 2009

What is the Storyline method?

- Storyline is a structured approach to learning and teaching developed in Scotland.
- It builds upon the key principle that learning, to be meaningful, has to be memorable. By using the learner's enthusiasm for story making, the classroom, the teacher's role, and learning can be transformed.

Keynote speakers

Sallie Harkness, Storyline Scotland international consultant

Michael Hoeye, children's author of the popular Hermux Tantamoq series

Marie Jeanne MacNaughton, drama educator from the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, Scotland

For registration and conference information go to www.ceed.pdx.edu/storyline

University credit is available for this conference.

For additional information
Shelly Othus 503-691-0553, email
storylinedesign@comcast.net

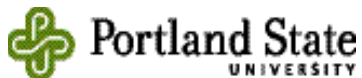

Storyline Design

European association
for Educational Design

Portland State UNIVERSITY

CONTINUING EDUCATION
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

PO Box 751
Portland OR 97207-0751

NONPROFIT ORG
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
PORTLAND OR PERMIT NO. 770

4th International Storyline Conference

Creating Worlds, Constructing Meaning

August 7-9, 2009
Portland, Oregon, USA

For registration and conference information go to www.ceed.pdx.edu/storyline

Printed at no expense to taxpayer. Please share any extra copies with a colleague.
PSU is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution.