with Keynote Speaker DR. JANET DAVIDSON

The Oregon Association for Talented & Gifted is proud to announce our annual conference will be held October 9, 2010 at beautiful Reed College in Portland, Oregon. Keynote Speaker Dr. Janet Davidson, Associate Professor of Psychology at Lewis and Clark College, will address the topic "Is Giftedness Really a Gift."

In addition to the keynote speech, the conference will feature breakout sessions, tours of the Reed campus, vendors and exhibitors and more. Mensa will provide a Games Room for Teens and 'Tweens 8-17 years old. There will be themed lunch gatherings and a movie screening followed by guided discussion.

Professional Development Units will be offered and Credit will be available through the University of Oregon.

You are cordially invited to attend this special event.
