

A DIFFERENT Drummer

You are invited to join parents, educators, and others as we "Learn from Our Children" at the 2012 Annual Conference of the Oregon Association for Talented and Gifted.

Dr. LeoNora Cohen will provide keynote remarks. LeoNora M. Cohen is an emeritus professor in the College of Education at Oregon State University. Her research interests have focused on giftedness, creativity, coping, children's interests, and more recently on mentoring. She taught gifted students, initiated Philadelphia's Mentally Gifted Program, and has published over 100 articles and books. Other guest speakers include Rebecca Blocher, ODE TAG Specialist. Additionally, three sessions of break-outs, exhibitors, and other opportunities to network and learn will also be featured at this once-a-year event in Oregon.

Tickets start at just $49.99 for members. Mark your calendar today and plan to join us at Century High School in Hillsboro, Oregon on October 20, 2012 from 9AM until 4PM. (Annual OATAG Board Meeting follows from 4-5PM).

October 20, 2012 9AM-4PM
Century High School, Hillsboro, Oregon
Register Today At OATAG.org

Additional Details available on inside back cover.

Annual Fall Conference

OATAG presents

Learning from our Children

with

LeoNora Cohen

Ed.D

The Oregon Association for Talented & Gifted
FALL 2012

<http://OATAG.org>
VOLUME XXIX, ISSUE 1

The Oregon Association for Talented And Gifted

Conference Preview: Learning from Our Children

The 2012 Conference of the Oregon Association for Talented and Gifted will be held Saturday, October 20, at Century High School in Hillsboro.

Accommodations:

Located conveniently near Portland-Hillsboro Airport and the conference venue, The Larkspur Landing offers affordable accommodations for the evening. A block of rooms has been set aside for the 2012 OATAG Conference. Rates are $75.00 for a Studio Queen and $85.00 for a Executive King. These rates are good until October 5, 2012. Please ask for the "OATAG Conference" rate when making reservations. Guests can call the hotel direct at 503-681-2121 or you may book on-line. For more information on accommodations, contact:

Donna Lombardo, Sales Associate
Larkspur Landing Hotel
3133 NE Shute Road
Hillsboro, OR 97124
Direct: 503.681.2121 x507
Fax: 503.693.7189
www.larkspurlanding.com/hillsboro

Vendors and Exhibitors:

We are still accepting applications for profit and non-profit groups to present in our exhibition hall. Non-profit exhibitors pay only $10 and commercial vendors only $100. Visit oatag.org for more information.

Program Advertising

Small and large advertisements are available in the conference program for $25 and $50 respectively. We are also accepting donations for door prizes. Please email president@oatag.org or visit oatag.org for more information.

Proposed Break-out Sessions

- Keynote follow-up Q and A
- Trends in the Performance of Advanced Students on the NAEP
- Instruction for TAG students: Getting at "Level and Rate"
- Emerging Identities of Twice-Exceptional Students
- Children's Interests: the Seeds of Creative Development
- The new Common Core Standards for Math
- Technology in Practice: Learning and Teaching with Web-Based Resources
- Student Panel
- Living with Intensity
- The STEM Innovation Equation
- Potentials for Online Enrichment: What to know and what to look for in
- Virtual Services
- Bullying and Gifted Students

Proposed Schedule:

8:00-8:30	Vendor Registration
8:00- 9:00	Attendee Registration
9:00 - 10:30	Welcome/Keynote
11:00-11:55	Break-out Session I
12:00-12:45	Lunch
12:45-1:30	General Session/ State of the State
1:35-2:30	Break-out Session II
2:30-3:00	Refreshments
3:00 - 3:55	Break-out Session III
4:00-5:00	OATAG Board Meeting

Proposed information in this bulletin is subject to change without notice.

